

May 13th, 2018 | Frequently Asked Questions > What languages do you currently support?

- Languages apply only to your landing page. The dashboard is currently English-only.

You can translate your landing pages and review site instructions to the following languages:

- English
- Spanish
- French
- German
- Danish
- Dutch
- Polish
- Italian
- Portuguese
- Romanian

Not all review sites have translated instructions. Review site instructions without translations will be presented in English. If you would like to see a review site's instructions translated into your language, please get in touch with us.

You can present your landing page in any of the above landing pages, or give your customers the option to select their preferred language.
